COMES TOO LATE!

THE GOEBEL BILL.

Jo. Blackburn's Deathbed Call For Repeal of the Law.

Lexington Evening Post, June 1.

Mr. Blackburn is in the midst of a bad fit in connection with the Goebel Law. During the campaign he was its ardent defender. At the close of the Music Hall Convention he put his arm about the neck of the author of that bill, and urged the people to elect him Governor. At Harrodsburg he stood on the platform and heard Mr. Goebel declare that Mr. Blackburn had come from Washington to Frankfort to help him pass the bill. Mr. Blackburn himself declared that hereafter he hoped there would be no stealing of votes, but that he was certain if the stealing was to be continued it would not be done by the Republicans. In Mr. Blackburn's presence Mr. Goebel said he did not want anyone to make a mistake about that law, he liked it, and only the L. and N. and its hired agents opposed it; he did not want the vote of any man who was opposed to the law, and if elected Governor he would veto any measure repealing it.

The bill has been repudiated by the people. Mr. Blackburn admits that it cost the Democratic party 80,000 votes. He writes a letter now urging radical amendments to the law and declaring with solemn hypocrisy that the Democratic party does not deserve to retain power save by the consent of a majority of the people.

The Goebelized Democracy of Kentucky stands today defiant, a rebellious aggregation of political Jayhawkers determined to rule the state and ruin it in spite of an adverse majority as shown at the polls.

The official return show a Republican plurality of 2,400. Governor Brown was credited with 12,900 votes. The L. and N. is, therefore, nearly 15,000 major. Where are the 25,000 votes of 30,000 Mr. Blackburn says this law has cost the party?

They went into the ballot-boxes and were not counted. The election was

Others who would keep their children in good health should watch for the first signs of this disease. It is a deadly disease. Write to J. J. Wood & Son.

The Goebels met at the Court-house, Saturday afternoon, and instructed for Bryan for President; C. L. Poyntz for Delegate-at-Large; R. H. Higgins-Smith of Harrison and Robert Wilson of Lewis county for State District Delegates to the Kansas City Convention. Harmony just laid around in great chunks.

FATAL DOSE.

Mr. Pearce B. Mills Expired Saturday Noon at his Home.

Mr. Pearce B. Mills died just before noon Saturday at his home, No. 322 Forest avenue.

Several days previously he had taken a draft of cholera, it is thought with suicidal intent.

Mr. Mills was a wood turner by trade, and had for several years been employed by the Mayville Manufacturing Company.

He was about 32 years of age and leaves a wife and three young children.

The funeral will take place from the residence at 1 o'clock this afternoon, services to be conducted by Minister Howard T. Cree of the Christian Church.

1000 REWARD: We will pay the above reward for anyone who can furnish information leading to the detection of the person or persons who have stolen the property of the Louisville and Nashville Railroad Company. The property is a box of 1000 lbs. of coal, stolen from the company's warehouse at Louisville, Ky. The property is a box of 1000 lbs. of coal, stolen from the company's warehouse at Louisville, Ky. The property is a box of 1000 lbs. of coal, stolen from the company's warehouse at Louisville, Ky.

chinery was in the hands of the Goebelized Democracy, and it was used ruthlessly and savagely throughout the state. This is the only way to account for the 25,000 missing Democrats, who, according to Mr. Blackburn, left the Democratic party on account of the Goebel Bill.

We do not think Mr. Blackburn over-estimated the defection. We have more faith than he has in the power of the Goebel Law to count Democrats as present and voting, whereas they voted the Republican or Brown ticket.

But we can assure the gentleman from Woodford and his associates that the defection of 1880 will not compare to the revolt of 1890. What was before a horrid possibility has become a living demonstration. Mr. Watson's portrayal of the inherent evils of such a measure were read all over the state of Kentucky, and still the people were slow to believe; now they know. Now the whole conspiracy stands revealed, and they see this same Watson stand before the office of the L. and N., demanding its surrender to the conspirators on terms he would name, and assuring his old paymaster that every element of chance had been removed from elections in Kentucky.

Therefore it is that the people of this state propose to devote this year to the restoration of civil liberty in Kentucky. Therefore it is that they are getting together on the one issue, civil liberty, in numbers no man can estimate.

Mr. Blackburn speaks too late. The evils of the Goebel Bill have been exposed by the contest before the Legislature, by the offer of $10,000 for evidence to hang Taylor and damn the Republican party, by the distribution of $10,000 to the Poyntz family, to members of the Senate who voted to override the people, and by other evidence, revealing the infamy of the whole conspiracy.

The people are awake and are mighty in their wrath. Name any candidate you please, gentlemen; Redwine, Black, Lewis, Hargis or Beckham, we care not; you must estimate the same in any case, and it carries political ruin with it.

News, news, news! It's enough to give a man the blues. Nobody married and nobody divorced; nobody broken an arm or a head; nobody came in to talk of the picnic; no one got hoarse and started a scrap; no one got run in for taking a horn; nobody hurried and nobody hurt. Oh, for a racket, a riot, a fable. Someone to come in and kick up a fuss; someone to stir up helplessness; someone's comment to give us a scare. Somebody thumped within an inch of his life; somebody ran off with another man's wife; someone come in and pay up their dues; anything, anything, just so it's news.
